

Yorkshire Methodism

essays to commemorate the jubilee year of the Wesley Historical Society (Yorkshire)

edited by
Edward Royle

Wesley Historical Society (Yorkshire)
2013

This collection of five essays examines aspects of Methodism in Yorkshire since the eighteenth century.

- The Importance of Yorkshire Methodism: Members, Money and Ministers, John Lenton
- Methodism in Saddleworth, E. Alan Rose
- Glasshouses: a Nidderdale Wesleyan Model Village, D. Colin Dews
- Methodists at the Parish Pump: Methodism and Parochial, Township and Municipal Politics in Halifax, c.1825–c.1850, John A. Hargreaves.
- Aspects of Methodism in the East Riding, Edward Royle

This paperback volume, with over 100 pages of text and 25 illustrations, will be published to commemorate the Jubilee of the Wesley Historical Society (Yorkshire) on 19 February 2013, retailing at £5.00.

For Chapels Society members who order and pay for a copy before that date the price is £4.00 (including p & p).

Please order on the form below, making cheques payable to “The Wesley Historical Society (Yorkshire)”.

Please send me copy/copies of Yorkshire Methodism. I enclose a cheque for £4.00 per copy (£5.00 after 19 February 2013).

Name

Address.....

.....

Please return this slip by 19 February 2013 to:
Edward Royle, 77 Heworth Green, York, YO31 7TL